Local Business Men Appeal for Donations to Concern Worldwide In Aid of The Rohingya Crisis in Bangladesh

Thousands of Rohingya people have fled the violence in Myanmar and are now living in terrible conditions in what had become the world’s largest and fastest growing refugee camp. Des Keenan (Kildress) and Cathal Mallaghan (Pomeroy) are calling on people to help Concern’s Emergency Appeal to provide food and life-saving medicine and equipment. To give parishioners the opportunity to donate there will be a Church Door Collection at all Masses on the weekend of 29/30 September 2018.

If you would like to help please contact Des at Kildress Plumbing or 07768535626 or Cathal on 07919332566.

Carmel O’Meara & Co. Solicitors

Dungannon in partnership with Cancer Research UK are offering a Free Wills Service to anyone over 55 years of age. This free service is to run through all of 2018. To make an appointment to have your will made, please contact 028 87752455 or see our website, www.carmelomeara.co.uk

Mid Ulster Agewell is a partnership covering the Mid Ulster Area working together to improve services for vulnerable older people in our community. We have 3 main projects. The Good morning telephone call operates Monday to Friday 8.30am to 12.30pm. The call reaches out to those who may be isolated, lonely or simply would benefit from more social interaction through the call. This call also can act as a medication and appointment reminder. This call is also very beneficial to find out information on events that may be taking place within your own community. We also have the Home Maintenance where we have 2 handymen who can complete home security checks and install items such as smoke alarms, carbon monoxide alarm etc. Also completing any small jobs around the home. Then lastly we have a Community Engagement worker who can come along to any community group and deliver a presentation on home security and help signpost to other support services. To make a referral for any of these services please phone 028 796 32170.
