Many of you will have traveled through Donaghmore and seen how well it looks, this is due to the fact that it has been competing in the Ulster in bloom competition. There is going to be huge investment in Pomeroy in the coming years and we would like Pomeroy to have a similar look and sense of pride in our area. To this end we would like all Community groups, Schools, Businesses and individuals to join and enter Pomeroy in Ulster in Bloom 2020. At this stage we would like an expression of interest so we can form a working group and devise an action plan. To get things started PDP will be prepared to do the administration side of this venture. We invite you to join in this exciting new journey. Please contact us to register your interest.
